Svoboda Dance Festival Association of the Battlefords

Greetings Everyone! The Svoboda Dance Festival Association is thrilled to welcome everyone to celebrate Ukrainian culture through dance at the 36th annual Svoboda Ukrainian Dance Festival in North Battleford. The Dekker Center for the Performing Arts has continually provided a beautiful backdrop to our dance festival for several years, and this year is no exception! We are excited to show off this amazing facility and the wonderful staff that help us keep everything running smoothly each year.

In addition, we are excited to welcome Warren's Catering to the Dekker Center canteen this year! They will be onsite Friday to Sunday, offering breakfast, lunch and dinner. Sunday they will be offering breakfast only as we have a short program that day. We have had a taste of what they have to offer and we think you are going to love them! Please check out our festival website for the complete menu.

The festival provides the showcase to display both traditional and contemporary dances from the various regions of the Ukraine. Ukrainian dance is unique in that each region has their own style and their own story that is told through the dance steps, the music and vibrant costumes. Each year we are fortunate to have these dances brought to life by the many skilled instructors and choreographers that have continually dedicated their efforts to preserving Ukrainian culture through dance.

We would like to thank the various dance festival committees, our dance club executive and committees, and all of our parents and family members who volunteer countless hours each year to help organize and run the festival. In addition, we would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the community members and businesses who have provided monetary support towards grants and scholarships this year. Without you none of this would be possible!

Please join us in our celebration of Ukrainian dance!

ADJUDICATOR

The 2026 Svoboda Dance

Festival would like to welcome our adjudicator

Stephanie Lilley

Stephanie is the founder and artistic director of Viva Dance Company. Under her leadership, the company has performed hundreds of times and is a staple in the Edmonton arts community. In addition to The Edmonton Signing Christmas Tree, Fringe Festivals across the country, galas, and charity events, the company also brings dance to new markets such as hockey arenas (Edmonton Oil Kings) and fashion shows (Western Canada Fashion Week).

Having undergone bilateral hip replacement surgery (2020), Steph takes a dancer-centered approach in which she strives to cater dance programming to the individual needs of each dancer she works with. She advocates for inclusive dance programming for all bodies.

Stephanie was part of the world renowned Ukrainian Shumka Dancers as a dancer, choreographer, and artistic consultant in which time she toured across Canada and China. She ran Shumka School of Dance's contemporary programming from 2018-2024. Stephanie regularly shares her passion for Ukrainian dance with students at Jube School, an arts outreach program offered by the Northern Alberta Jubilee Auditorium.

Stephanie is the co-Artistic Director of Orchesis Dance Society, a community based dance program for adults. In this capacity, she programs classes, workshops, and performances alongside partner, Andrea Fitzgerald. Orchesis' annual production of Motif Moves has been a project Stephanie has championed over the last three years. She has been a pivotal force in keeping this fifty-year-old dance organization alive and thriving. Stephanie has facilitated performances for Orchesis dancers with the Edmonton Elks, The John Cameron Changing Lives Foundation, and NextFest.

Stephanie has a Bachelor's degree in Kinesiology (BKin) as well as a Master's degree in Business Administration (MBA). Steph is a sessional instructor at MacEwan University where she instructs in the faculty of Health & Community Studies. Although an experienced teacher and performer, she continues to be a student herself. Some of her most influential teachers include her children, Jude (11) and Gloria (9).

As an adjudicator, Stephanie has worked with Zirka Dance Challenge, Vitaemo Ukrainian Dance Festival, Camrose & District Music Festival, Kalyna Festival, Biggar Dance Festival, Peace River Dance Festival, Whitehorse Dance and Music Festival, Culture Fuze, Athabasca Dance Festival, BC Ukrainian Cultural Festival, and the K-Days Talent Search. She has also served on adjudicating committees of municipal and provincial funding bodies.

REGIONS OF UKRAINE

CENTRAL UKRAINE (Poltava)

This region includes the Kyiv (capital city), Poltava, Cherkasy, Kirovohad and Dnipropetrovs'k provinces. The Medieval Kyivan state was formed in this region. The Kozak state also developed here. This region consists of flat lands, rolling hills, rivers, lakes, forests and valleys. Agriculture is an important industry. Later, heavy industry developed when coal deposits were found in the Donbas area and iron ore in Kryvyi Rih (Eastern Ukraine). The "Hopak" dance, characterized by highflying males and spinning females, originates from this region. The folkways of this region are recognized across the world and their costume is deemed the "national" costume of Ukraine.

SOUTHERN UKRAINE

Deemed as one of the largest regions, it consists of low, flat areas covered with endless grasslands. Due to the strong east winds from Asia, the climate is warm and dry. The area is noted for its rich resources of minerals, "chornozem" (black top soil), and more recently, grain farming.

HUTSUL'SHCHYNA (Hutsul)

This area is located in the highest parts of the Carpathian Mountains. Densely wooded and rocky areas make up most of the terrain. Forestry is a major industry, as well as cattle and sheep breeding. Many of the residents are skillful builders and wood carvers. Due to the remote aspect of the region, many archaic elements of customs, rituals and beliefs remain. Their dance technique is high spirited and lively.

BUKOVYNA (Bukovynian)

This region is located in the Bukovynian Foothills, which is divided between Ukraine and Romania, on the southeastern slopes of the Carpathian Mountains in Western Ukraine. The region's name is derived from the "Beech" tree, or "Buk", which grows abundantly there. Since 40% of the area is forest, the main industry is lumber. Many minerals are found in the mountainous areas. The culture is similar to the Hutsuly, with energetic, lively and foot stamping dance combinations.

VOLYN'

This region is found between Podillia and Polissia, in northwestern Ukraine. The area consists of forests, plateaus and fertile black soil. The main industry is wheat farming. Other trades and industries are not well developed. The Volyn' folkways were not wealthy or well developed as compared to others. Many Christmas carols and elements of the old ways are preserved here. The dance technique is characterized by many jumps, high kicks and spins.

POLISSIA (Polissian)

Situated in northern Ukraine and bordering with Belarus, the landscape of this area is mainly marshy with low turf meadows. Cattle breeding, fishing, grain farming and hog raising are the main industries. The area is well known for making the finest linen in Ukraine. The preservation of their culture is found in song, wood working and costuming, depicting ancient and medieval times. The style of dance in this region is very similar to Volyn', the neighbouring region.

PODILLIA

This area lies from the foot of the Carpathian Mountains in northwestern Ukraine to central and southern Ukraine in the southeast. It consists of few forests, deep valleys and ponds with very fertile soil. The main industries are wheat, corn and sugar beets. The folkways are influenced by the neighbouring regions. The style of dance on the eastern side of Podillia is very similar to Central Ukraine. The western side of Podillia exhibits dance techniques from the Carpathian regions.

ZAKARPATTIA (Transcarpathian)

Located south of the crest of the Carpathian Mountains, it is partially comprised of rolling lowlands with fertile soil. The majority of this area has rocky terrain and forested slopes. Pasturing animals, forestry, harvesting of grapes and semi-tropical fruits are the main industries due to the mild climate. The style of dance of this region consists of many twisting and turning circles.

LEMKIVSHCHYNA (Lemko)

This region is split between Ukraine, Poland and Slovakia. Found in the westernmost region of Ukraine, the main activities in the Lemko region are sheep and cattle raising and growing of potatoes and tobacco. The culture and rich traditions are preserved, including the "chuhy", the woolen mantles. Dance technique is based on light, bouncy and twisting steps.

BOIKIVSHCHYNA

The majority of residents reside in the central area of the Carpathian Mountains, south and east of the Lemky. The main industries include lumbering, petroleum and agriculture, consisting of mushroom and berry picking and selling. The style of dance is similar to the Hutsul'shchyna.
